ARBE
Association for Research in Business Education
Prepared by: Tracie Opolka, Communications Director

BERC 2018 in Baltimore, MD: At-a-Glance

Award Winners:

ARBE Doctoral Dissertation Award: Lacey Finley, Park University in Parkville, Missouri "Undergraduate Business Students' Perceptions of Teaching Presence in Online Business Courses."

ARBE Innovative Instructional Practices Award: Carol Blaszcynski, California State University LA, Los Angeles "Infusing Mindfulness Activities into Business Education Courses."

Thank you Marcel for all you have done for our association this past year!

New ARBE Officers:
President, Cheryl Wiedmaier
Vice President, Maggie O’Connor
Director of Communications, Tracie Opolka
ARBE Director to the NBEA Board, Barbara Hagler
Congratulations to our very own Virginia Hemby-Grubb who won the John Robert Gregg Award in Business Education

This award is presented each year to an individual who has been widely recognized by colleagues and education professionals as having made outstanding contributions to the advancement of business education. The year the award goes to Dr. K. Virginia Hemby-Grubb, Professor, Department of Marketing, Jones College of Business, Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro, Tennessee. She has served for over 25 years as a business educator in higher education.
For more information about ARBE go to our website: https://www.arberesearch.org/

➢ How to join
➢ Apply for research grants
➢ Publish in research journals
➢ Present your research
➢ Next year’s conference information (Chicago, IL)

Follow us on Twitter: @ARBEResearch

Next year’s research topic:

Research for the Classroom, Boardroom, and Beyond!
Applications are due by October 1

Questions: Cheryl Wiedmaier
cheryl.wiedmaier@arkansas.gov